Our Mission Community Prayer

Heavenly Father,
 As we meet in Your presence, hold us together in our Mission Community.
 May Your Church grow as we deepen our love for You and our service to others.
 Help us to remember, though we are many, we are one body as we all share in You, our one God.
 Amen

BRODSKY QUARTET

An exciting new programme including
 Borodin, Rachmaninov, Smetana
 Shostakovich

Sunday 30 November 4pm
 Lympstone Parish Church

Lympstone Entertainments welcomes back the
Brodsky Quartet

Lympstone Entertainments are proud to continue their ongoing relationship with the Brodsky with this new programme, before they take it to the Stoller Hall in Manchester in December.

The Brodsky are legendary for their performances of Shostakovich and they will be marking the 50th anniversary of his death by playing his 9th String Quartet. Audiences will remember the excitement when they played the 10th for us three years ago. As Roger Hendy of ISCA wrote in his glowing review:

"They were rapturously received by the audience."

Other pieces include music by Borodin, Rachmaninov and Smetana's autobiographical quartet 'From My Life'.

Tickets available now at the astounding price of £10 Under 26 Free

"Finding the Truth, a journey from humanism to realism". Our speaker, Nigel Goodwin is, in his own words "An 88 year old teenager". As a working actor he was dramatically converted in the 1960s, studied theology for three years and began a ministry to people in the media arts entertainment industry around the world, which he did with his wife Gillie for over 40 years. They now live in Lympstone village, where he continues to be an active member of the church and community.
