Our Mission Community Prayer

Heavenly Father,

As we meet in Your presence, hold us together in our Mission Community.

May Your Church grow as we deepen our love for You and our service to others.

Help us to remember, though we are many, we are one body as we all share in You, our one God.

Amen

welcomes back the Brodsky Quartet*

Lympstone Entertainments are proud to continue their ongoing relationship with the Brodsky with this new programme, before they take it to the Stoller Hall in Manchester in December.

The Brodsky are legendary for their performances of Shostakovich and they will be marking the 50th anniversary of his death by playing his 9th String Quartet. Audiences will remember the excitement when they played the 10th for us three years ago. As Roger Hendy of ISCA wrote in his glowing review:

"They were rapturously received by the audience."

Other pieces include music by Borodin, Rachmaninov and Smetana's autobiographical quartet 'From My Life'.

Quiet Prayer Time

Come and 'Put yourself into the hands of God'
from 11.30pm – 12noon

on the 1st, 2nd and 4th Wednesday of every month

Each session starts with a short passage of scripture, and a spiritual reflection, or poetry or music. This leads into a longer period of silent contemplative prayer (usually 15-20 mins), which is brought to a close with the Lord's Prayer. No experience or expertise of meditative prayer necessary!

Everyone is welcome – just turn up!
